To Whom It May Concern,

Please excuse the bearer of this letter for being absent on Friday, April 21st, 2023. This is the day Muslims celebrate the holiday Eid-ul-Fitr, which commemorates the end of the holy month of Ramadan. It is traditionally a day of prayer and community gathering and is very important in the religious lives of Muslims around the world.

Thank you very much for your understanding.

Sincerely,

Abdur Rahman Khan
